

local food • local chefs
www.kingstonfood.ca

Hosted by the Local Food Local Chefs Initiative, HOMEGROWN BLUESFOOD will showcase the quality of food produced by the region's farmers and the high calibre talent of Kingston Chefs, while celebrating Blues culture and cuisine. All participating restaurants will offer their locally sourced "southern" style dinner menus from 5pm daily during the four days of the Blues Festival. Price range varies on a per restaurant basis.

For more information on the Local Food Local Chefs Initiative or on Kingston's local restaurants visit www.kingstonfood.ca

Local Spin on Southern Style

homegrown

BLUESFOOD

August 25, 26, 27, 28
- 2011 -

Participating restaurants include:

| | | BEEN THERE, PIGGED OUT ON THAT! |
|-----------|--|---------------------------------------|
| 1 | Aqua Terra 1 Johnson St. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 2 | Atomica Gourmet Pizza & Wine Bar 71 Brock St. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 3 | Brandees 178A Ontario St. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 4 | Chez Piggy 68 Princess St. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 5 | Fanatics 371 Princess St. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 6 | Harper's Burger Bar 93 Princess St. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 7 | Le Chien Noir Bistro 69 Brock St. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 8 | Olivea 39 Brock St. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 9 | Tango 331 King St. E | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 10 | Windmills 184 Princess St. | <input type="checkbox"/> |

For more information on the Local Food Local Chefs Initiative or on Kingston's local restaurants visit www.kingstonfood.ca

